Application Form

Name:

E-mail:

Phone Number:

College/University:

Major:

Year in School:

GPA:

1. Why do you want to work in our lab as a summer intern?
2. Tell us why you would be a good member of our research team. (Note: In your response, be sure to describe any previous research experience. If you do not have research experience, tell us why you think you would be good at research.)
3. Where do you envision yourself in five years? What motivates you?
4. Briefly describe one of your favorite psychology experiments, including the task, independent and dependent variables, and results. What should we take away from this experiment? Why is this research important?

Summer Internship Program Application

(Due Friday, March 3, 2017)

5. We want to know a bit more about what makes you tick. What discipline(s) other than psychology interest you? Tell us briefly about an idea (from any discipline) that excites you.
6. Our lab does work both in cognitive psychology (with adults) and in developmental psychology (with kids). Do you prefer one or the other of these types of work? Are there any particular lines of work that the lab is doing that are of interest to you? (Note: It's okay if you have no preferences here. This is just to direct your application to the relevant graduate students.)
7. Please describe any other relevant skills that might be relevant for evaluating your application (e.g., programming languages, art/craft skills, experience with children).

Additional required materials

1. An electronic (PDF) copy of your current transcript (unofficial is fine!).
2. An up-to-date resumé, saved as a PDF.
Please be sure to include any research experience or other work experience you have, as well as any other qualifications (e.g., skills, awards, or experiences) that would help us to assess your application.
3. Two letters of recommendation, sent directly from your recommenders.
These should be sent to aaron.chuey@yale.edu.

Note on choosing recommenders: The best recommendations come from professors (lab managers or graduate students also okay) who know you well and who can comment on your work ethic and suitability for a research position.

The application form, transcript, and resumé should be sent to aaron.chuey@yale.edu in PDF format (subject line: Lastname, Firstname CDL Summer Internship Application 2017). Letters of recommendation should be sent separately by your recommenders to aaron.chuey@yale.edu. All materials must be received by March 3, 2017.
